Declaration

I have read and understood the information contained both on this application form and on the accompanying notes and declare that all the information I have given is correct. Evidence of my qualifications or a letter confirming five years optical experience is enclosed. Failure to do so will render my application invalid.

I understand that I must be employed as a trainee dispensing optician for a minimum of 30 hours per week for the duration of my studies, under the continuous supervision of a registered dispensing optician, optometrist or ophthalmic medical practitioner. I agree to advise the Courses Team at ABDO College immediately if any of my employment details change.

I understand that it is my responsibility to ensure all work is completed on time and sent to my tutor. It is also my responsibility to arrange the payment of my course fees.

I agree to the ABDO College Privacy Policy and therefore for my details to be shared by ABDO College with ABDO Examinations, ABDO Membership Services, the General Optical Council, The Worshipful Company of Spectacle Makers and Canterbury Christ Church University for the purposes of course management.

I agree for my email address to be made available to other students and ABDO College Staff via the online learning environment for the purposes of peer network creation.

Further information on how ABDO College uses your data can be found in our Privacy Policy, available from the ABDO College website. Acceptance of the ABDO College Privacy Policy is a requirement to enter our courses. We recommend that you read this document.

I hereby sign in agreement to the above contract.
